

DRAFT PROGRAMME
FOURTH ANNUAL FORUM ON ENDOCRINE DISRUPTORS

European Commission
Hybrid conference – interpretation in DE, ES, FR and IT
21-22 September 2022

The 4th Annual Forum will be a hybrid conference, with the possibility for remote participants to interact during the event. The conference will be in English, with interpretation in German, Spanish, French and Italian. This Forum is co-organised with ANSES, the French National Agency for Food, Environmental and Occupational Health and Safety.

Please click on the registration link below if you want to participate online. (The onsite registration is closed now). Due to limited room capacity, the European Commission reserves the right to refuse participation requests above that capacity, taking into consideration the order of registrations and the objective of ensuring a balanced representation of stakeholders.
